

GAIN REAL WORK EXPERIENCE IN THE SPORTS INDUSTRY. That's the opportunity that Prime Time Sports and the Les Schwab Invitational Presented By Express Employment Professionals will provide. Through the Les Schwab Invitational Internship Program, we give aspiring sports industry professionals the opportunity to gain real world experience while networking in a fast-paced, event management setting.

Whether you're looking to become a young professional in the sports industry, a coach, administrator, an aspiring a photographer, an event operator, videographer, an employee at Nike, etc. the skills attained, and the networking opportunities that are available via our internship program are plentiful.

Are you our next success story?

Testimonials:

Jeff Lulay, Nike Brand Marketing, Manager

I interned for Prime Time Sports between my Freshman, Sophomore and Junior year of college. At the time, I had limited work experience and knowledge of the basketball landscape, especially with regards to high-level and competitive hoops.

Throughout my experience with Prime Time Sports, the staff allowed me to grow into my role and presented me with opportunities to strengthen my understanding of basketball culture, competition, and business. Being able to collaborate with the team, work with top basketball talent and coaches provided me with the experience I needed to be successful in my internship and in my current career at Nike.

Learning the art of running an event, managing multiple relationships , and coordinating logistics under a tight timeline has forever impacted how much I appreciate the sports landscape. The hard-skills and knowledge acquired in my time with Prime Time Sports has allowed me to achieve my career goals and then some. To this day, I find relevant experience from my internship to reference while managing a team, launching products and signing athletes. Beyond my personal growth, the life-long friendship and memories created with the Prime Time Sports team are forever close to my heart. I look forward to seeing and attend the events the team hosts every year.

Interested in becoming an intern? We offer both paid and un-paid internships based on a number of factors, including availability and start date. Please email your resume and any other pertinent information about yourself to Reggie Walker at rwalker@primetimepdx.com

Internship Positions Include:

- Social Media and Digital Marketing
- Event Operations
- Event Promotions
- More

The Type Of Candidates We're Looking For:

- Proactive Problem Solver
- Disciplined
- Driven
- Organized
- Great Teammate, With Strong Ability to Work Independently
- Self-Starter
- Can Work In A Fast-Paced Environment
- Willing To Learn

Bonus:

- Familiar With The Les Schwab Invitational
- Knowledge of Basketball
- Knowledge of Nike and Nike Basketball Branding & Presentation

Qualifications:

- Are at least 18 years of age
- Are in the process of or have recently acquired a degree in Communications, Marketing, Event Marketing, Business Management, or a related degree with applicable transferrable skills
- Can follow verbal and written direction, understand, and communicate in conversational English, and communicate professionally
- Demonstrate the ability to work efficiently as a team with people of a diverse set of backgrounds and abilities
- Can prioritize, run multiple projects and deadlines, and stay organized with an attention to detail in a fast-paced environment
- Maintain a high-level of confidentiality and exercise discretion when working with sensitive or proprietary information
- Available to Work the Month of December, in particular December 26-30